Other February notes: Retired Engineer Keith Stout received special recognition on the occasion of his retirement during the City Council Meeting on February 24. Keith had over 22 years with the City prior to his medical retirement in January. Fire & Rescue personnel were involved in assisting with the first Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training conducted on February 24-26. This was our first of what will become a series of ongoing classes as we work to train our community members to fill these roles in our workplaces and neighborhoods.
